Greensboro, NC – Banknote Corporation of America has chosen northeast Greensboro/Guilford County for its world-class expansion. Located off 6109 Corporate Park Dr., the US-based commercial security printer will construct a modern 20,000-square-foot expansion. This development will create 50 new jobs and bring an investment of $28 million to the community.

"The City has been focused on securing investments throughout Greensboro. This expansion supports that effort and our commitment to add diverse jobs to the workforce," said Greensboro Mayor Nancy Vaughan.

"It's another great day for Guilford County as we begin our new chapter with Banknote," said Melvin "Skip" Alston, Chairman of Guilford County Board of Commissioners. "This is one more example of a world-class company deciding to deepen its roots in the Triad, and we look forward to a long and mutually beneficial relationship."

"We are thrilled to announce our expansion in Guilford County, which reflects our commitment to growth and innovation," said Timothy Finn, General Manager of Banknote Corporation of America.
